- (a) is or becomes part of the public domain (other than as a result of a breach of the Contract); or
- (b) is required to be disclosed under any Law, Authority, regulated securities exchange or Order of any Court of competent jurisdiction.
- 17.3 Without limiting the generality of clause 17.1, the Supplier must not advertise, publish, issue or announce (or allow to be advertised, published, issued or announced), any information, publication, document or article for publication, media release or other publicity concerning the Contract, the supply of Goods and/or Services under the Contract, Cape's Confidential Information, that the Supplier has any business relationship with Cape or Cape's business and activities without the prior written approval of Cape.

- 18.2 Cape may immediately end the Contract by notice in writing to the Supplier if:
- (a) the Supplier is in default under the terms of the Contract and Cape reasonably believes the default is incapable of remedy or, where the default is capable of remedy, the Supplier has failed to remedy the default within 14 days' written notice from Cape requiring it to do so;
- (b) the Supplier undergoes a change of Control and Cape determines acting reasonably that Control of the Supplier vests in a competitor of Cape, the change would otherwise create a conflict of interests; or following the change, the Goods and/or Services may not be provided in accordance with the Contract; or
- (c) the Supplier becomes bankrupt, goes into liquidation or provisional liquidation, has an administrator, trustee in bankruptcy or controller appointed to it or any of its property, fails to comply with a statutory demand, is unable to pay its debts when due or otherwise becomes insolvent.
- 18.3 The Supplier may end the Contract by notice in writing to Cape if:

- 18.6 Termination or expiry of the Contract for any reason will not affect the rights or liabilities accrued prior to termination or expiry, or any terms intended expressly or by implication to survive termination or expiry. - 19. REPUTATION
- 19.1 The Supplier shall not knowingly or intentionally act or make any omission or otherwise do anything which in Cape's reasonable opinion causes (or is likely to cause) damage to and/or prejudice Cape's or the Cape Group's good name and/or reputation.

- 21. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBCONTRACTING

- 21.2 Cape may assign, transfer and/or sub-license any of its rights and obligations under the Contract to any entity within the Cape Group without the Supplier's consent.

23. GENERAL

- 23.1 The parties agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (adopted at Vienna on 10 April 1980) does not apply to the Contract in any respect.
- 23.2 The Supplier is an independent contractor. Nothing in the Contract is intended to constitute a fiduciary relationship, employment relationship or an agency, partnership or trust; and no party has the authority to bind the other party.
- 23.3 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties relating in any way to its subject matter. All prior negotiations or agreements, communications, understandings, or representations about the subject matter of the Contract are of no effect.
- 23.4 No variation of the Contract is effective unless made in writing and signed by or on behalf of each party.
- 23.5 If any provision of these Conditions is held to be invalid or unenforceable in a particular jurisdiction:
- (a) it is read down or severed in that jurisdiction only to the extent of the invalidity or unenforceability; and
 - (b) it does not affect the validity or enforceability of that provision in another jurisdiction or the remaining provisions in any jurisdiction.
- 23.6 The rights, powers and remedies provided in the Contract are cumulative with and not exclusive of the rights, powers or remedies provided by Law independently of the Contract.
- 23.7 Failure to exercise or delay in exercising a right, power or remedy under the Contract does not operate as a waiver or prevent further exercise of that or of any other right or remedy. A single or partial exercise of a right or remedy under the Contract does not prevent a further exercise of that or of any other right or remedy.
- 23.8 The Contract is governed by and is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the Jurisdiction. The parties irrevocably agree that the courts of the Jurisdiction will have non-exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute which may arise out of or in connection with the Contract (including non-contractual disputes).
